

What's New At Heirlooms?

Designs: As mentioned last month, two of our favourite designers - Judy Whitman of JBW Designs and Sandie Vanosdall of The Sweetheart Tree - have published some lovely new designs. In last month's newsletter, those by Judy were featured and the following are those by Sandie. In the Teenie Kits series there are four new additions, in the Teenie Tweenies series, three new additions and in leaflet form, one new addition. A little reminder about each. Teenie Kits are always "all-inclusive". This means that everything you will need to stitch the design is included in the kit - even the needles! Teenie Tweenies designs are always presented with the special embellishments, and with regards to this particular leaflet, the embellishments are also included with the design.

SWT:TK 072 - "X" is for X-Stitch: The perfect design for "x-stitchers". The darling little stitcher in this design has her hoop in hand and is enjoying the gift of stitching. This piece is worked on Belfast Linen (Summer Khaki) and is embellished with crème pearls, a crème pearl heart and a sprinkling of beads. $42.00

SWT:TK 073 - Elizabeth's Jubilee: Rejoice and enjoy a cup of tea while you stitch this lovely design commemorating Queen Elizabeth's wonderful 60 year reign. Her Majesty's loyal "subjects" will enjoy stitching this beautiful design worked in shades of dusty blue and soft olive tones. It sparkles with diamond-like crystal paillettes & has a gorgeous dusty sapphire cabochon heart in the centre. So regal - it's fit for a Queen! $42.00

Finish the design for your holiday home - either as a framed piece or as an embellishment, such as a pillow or little cushion. $42.00

The following are the three new Teenie Tweenies - one with Christmas in mind, one for those who love Scottish themed designs and one for the romantic in all of us.

SWT:T 161 - Teenie Christmas Angel: A darling little angel amidst a leafy holly border and sparkly crystal-clear paillettes. The paillettes are included with the design. So too, a set of numerals so that you can change the year date - just in case you do not get it stitched before this Christmas! $23.00

Note: I have stitched this design (but not made it into an ornament as yet) and she is lovely. She complements the NOEL quadrielle beautifully!

SWT:T 162 - Tiny Thistle: This design is of a gorgeous and sophisticated thistle worked with rich amethyst and olive green tones and embellished with pearls and amethyst Porphy flower beads. The flower beads are all "one of a kind" - hand-poured with swirls of purple running through them - just exquisite! These flower beads are included with the design. $23.00

SWT:T 163 - You Hold The Key To My Heart: Pale pink rosebuds and twining vines surround a stitched heart, above which hangs a silver key. This design also has a bit of sparkle with crystal-clear paillettes. When completed, this may be framed, inserted into a small box top or stretched over custom-cut mounting boards (*) as per the photograph of the design. Key embellishment and paillettes are included with the design. $23.00

(*) Custom-cut mounting boards are available - SWT:MB $5.50 each. Two boards are required.

Sparkly embellishments (paillettes and beads) are included with this leaflet. As per Sandie's words, "Santa's gonna love seeing these hanging on your Christmas Tree when he slides down your chimney". Recognition: Recently it has been brought to my attention that one of our local needlework friends, Katrina Jamieson of Waipukurau, has been recognised in one of the American needlework magazines - CrossStitch & Needlework. The September 2012 issue. The editor wrote, "Katrina Jamieson started this blog nearly eight years ago after realizing there were few stitching bloggers originating from her home country of New Zealand. Having always had a pen pal since she was young, Katrina uses her blog to connect with stitchers all over the world, offering support for the hobby and sharing their passions for stitching. Visit her blog to find fun, personal stories of her craft endeavours, work-in-progress stitching updates, and photos of finished designs that are sure to inspire you."

Katrina's blog address is ~ kiwistitching.blogspot.com

My Apologies !!

My apologies to Olwyn
and to you - all recipients of this newsletter

I made an error with the image of Olwyn's design in my August newsletter.
I must have accidentally flipped the image when inserting it on to the page.

I did not notice this until receiving a note from one of my lovely Auckland needlework friends - Pat Britton - advising of my error.

Thank you, Pat. You have very sharp eyes!

(Thought you might like to know -
Pat was the proof reader for this design when it was first published)

Note: For those of you who did not receive the August newsletter at the time it was first sent, but at a later date, this error has already been rectified.
