

Blog #15 - Some New Zealanders at BATB

Wednesday, 8 October 2014 -

Over 300 ladies and a few men (one was a student in one of my classes) attended 'Beating Around The Bush' (BATB). Attendees were from all over the world - UK, USA, Canada, Japan - as well as from Australia and New Zealand.

I didn't get to meet all the New Zealanders but there were about 15 of us.

We were from all parts of the country. - Auckland, Whangarei, Kaitia, Hamilton, Morrinsville, Wellington, Nelson and, of course, myself from Napier. I didn't know everyone - but almost.

Here are a couple of photos of some of the NZ ladies taken during a morning tea break.

I am sure that many of you will recognise Elizabeth and the other ladies in these two photos.

And here are three New Zealanders in their classes -

And here - Elizabeth and I were "caught on camera" at lunchtime one day.

Elizabeth is an awesome friend.

I didn't know she was to be attending BATB until just a few weeks prior to my going.

She willingly helped me in SO many ways.

My exhibition booth was SO busy and I was so grateful she was there!

For the first few hours it was jam-packed! Her assistance was sincerely appreciated.

Here are a couple of photos of my booth before the rush and crush -

More 'Beating Around The Bush' news in my next blog.
