Gabrielle Linen

Precut Sizes / Special Prices

Renamed by me for its uniqueness, this linen has been inundated and water stained by the devastating flood waters caused by Cyclone Gabrielle.

The linen was salvaged from the residual wet muddy sludge after the waters had receded and two awesome friends and needlework companions - Carol & Joy - worked tirelessly laundering and refreshing the linen.

The result is a linen that has varying shades of colour or small areas of differing colour - but only subtle colour shades/changes - thus giving it a slightly aged look wonderful for reproduction samplers. Also, due to its laundering, this linen is quite soft.

I am pleased to offer this linen at a special price and precut sizes.
