Maryanne's 1823 Sampler

This lovely sampler was stitched by Maryanne
when she was 7 years of age and is in the private collection of Margo, Hastings, New Zealand.

Margo's mother purchased this sampler
when on a holiday to Ireland before WWII.

She saw it ~ she liked it ~ she bought it

I sincerely thank Margo for allowing me the privilege of reproducing this sampler for your stitching pleasure.

As this design is a reproduction of an historic sampler

there are a few misplacements of stitches, motifs, etc.

You can decide whether to leave them so that your sampler will be a replica or rearrange to your liking.

Some minor adjustments have been made by myself as the designer for ease of charting.
