

What's New At Heirlooms?

Fabric: Due to a special request from one of our very talented New Zealand needlework designer / tutors, Marjorie Irwin, I now have in stock her favourite fabric in her favourite choice of colour. It is : Permin Linen - 32 count - French Lace. This colour is a very light grey with a hint of the palest sage green. Marjorie loves this colour as she says it looks beautiful when stitched with white threads.

Designs: Two designs inspired by the motifs of the little girl stitchers at Ackworth, England's school for Quaker children, and recently purchased at the needlework Trade Show are -

C&T:SEASONS - Quaker Seasons of Friendship: This rectangular design is divided into four sections and each section is crammed with Quaker motifs - each section representing one of the yearly seasons. However, there is no reason why you could not choose to stitch one of the sections or stitch all four of them individually if you did not wish to stitch a huge piece of needlework. The complete design - stitched on 40 count linen - measures 22" long by 12.5" wide - and is stitched with one colour. Rather lovely. $37.50

This year's special Christmas Ornaments magazine by Just CrossStitch has arrived at the Gallery.

Only a few copies remaining. Order immediately to ensure you don't miss out. $21.50

C&T:LETTERS - Quaker Love Letters: Once stitched, this design is made into a pouch in which to keep your letters from your friends. Both the front, back & flap are covered with Quaker motifs and amongst these motifs you are encouraged to stitch the initials of your friends. The verse on the front of the pouch reads, "Heaven is happiness and happiness consists in part of remembrance" and on the back is "Forget Me Not". Once again, this design is stitched with only one colour and the recommended fabric is a 30 count. $27.50
